Dear Ms. Sullivan:

I wanted to express my sincere appreciation to you for your very thoughtful letter. I was touched by your kind words. It was also a pleasure to read some of your poetry – impressive work. Thanks for sharing it.

I also wanted to thank you for telling me a bit about yourself and your family – particularly the story of listening to FDR around your family radio as he informed you of Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor. I can't tell you how much it means to be thought of as a "truth teller," and to be placed in his company, as well as Churchill. You really are too kind.

I have learned a great deal from this ongoing experience, but more than anything else, I have learned that it's the kindness from others that keeps you going. Thank you again. I will remain grateful for your extraordinary support from Oklahoma.

Best wishes to you and your family.

Thank you so much!

Sincerely,

ANDREW M. CUOMO
